Dear Friends,

Huaxia Chinese Chorus (HXC) brings people together and enriches people's lives by sharing Chinese folk songs as well as songs from all over the world. Established in 1996, HXC is a nonprofit, nonpolitical, nonreligious, cultural organization. Over the years, HXC has organized and participated in many concerts and cultural and musical events in the greater New York area. The chorus has continually worked toward high quality performance through vocal training by professional musicians. It received a silver medal at the 4th World Chinese Chorus Competition in Beijing in August 2010. For more information about HXC, please visit its web site, <http://www.hxchorus.org/>.

HXC has been active in serving the local community through choral singing and other multicultural activities. In March 2010, HXC organized and performed a Spring Concert at Montclair State University as part of the University's Chinese Festival of Arts and Humanities. In May 2011, HXC members participated in China Day-2, a community-wide concert in Verona, NJ. HXC will continue to provide community service via choral singing and concert performance. This year, a major event for our chorus is our participation in the World Chorus Games, the Olympics of choral music, to be held in Cincinnati, July 4-14, 2012.
